The Northfield Township Food Pantry collects race and ethnicity information from clients to better understand and improve diverse community needs. This is entirely optional and providing this information does not affect a client's access to services. We value client privacy and choice.

For the sake of everyone's safety we reserve the right to refuse service to anyone who:

- Verbally abuses staff, volunteers, or other clients
- Is intoxicated
- Is smoking on the premises
- Exhibits aggressive or violent behavior
- Has weapons on their person

If necessary, police will handle behavior problems that pose a potential threat or disrupts service.
